The undersigned commenced, in the month of December, 1860, the publication, in this city, or wackly newspaper, ca.led the Mai

It is printed on a large sheet, twenty-sever by forty-two inches, and is furnished at the low prices stated below. It contains all the original matter of the daily National Republican, with the exception of local news not interesting to country sub-longress, and of the other departments of the National Government. It contains all the news of the day, foreign and domestic, markets, &c., &c., as well as az original o-rrespondence from all parts of the country. The miscellaneous department will receive special attention, and, in all respects, the effort will be made to establish the charac ter of the National Republican as a Family Newspaper. Washington being now the cent the current inflitary operations, great attention will be paid to furnishing the readers of the National Republican with full, and especially with necurals, secounts of the progress of the war for the Union.

ong the Administration of Mr. Lincoln. ing the Administration of Mr. Lincoln. There is no other Republican paper in the District of Columbia, or in the vicinity of it, and it is believed that recent events have opened to such a paper an important sphere of useful effort. The time has come, when the actual administration of the Government upon Republican principles will explode the misrepresentation. nations which have made those principles so distanteful to the South. But it is not only here, and in this vicinity. that the projectors of the National Republican hope to make it useful. To the whole country they offer a journal which will discuss national politics from a national standpoint, and which will never be swerred from patriotic duty by any overhowering pressure of local interest.
